Our very last day is drawing near,
The final day of our senior year.
It's a time to laugh, a time to cry,
But never a time to say good-bye.
We've cherished many memories through the years.
Even the ones filled with sad and happy tears.

-Susan Dickerson

Times to remember-whether glad or sad-
Who could tell what kind of impact they had?
It all went by in a sudden flash,
Four years of my life, now in the past.
I say thanks to my teachers and all that scolded,
Now I say, "Look, see what they molded:
Leaders of the future to be in pages unfolded."
Now we are leaving, but there will be more
Bright young students coming through the door.
These are times to remember and cherish from the start,
For these years are important and should be taken to heart.

-Chad Woodson

Dancing, Vacationing, and Congratulating:
Memories

Time to Fulfill a Dream

1993 Talent Show: "Stage of Dreams"

Someone once said that "every person will have fifteen minutes of fame sometime in his life." For many of the Courtland High School students those fifteen minutes came Friday, March 26,1993, on a "Stage of Dreams." That night many people showed off their known and perhaps unknown talents in the areas of dance, drama, and music. This production was a joint venture of the S.C.A. and the Band Department here at Courtland High School and was awaited with anticipation by the many students who wished to show their talents. This year the audience enjoyed a variety of acts, ranging from a freestyle rap to a dramatic scene. There were no winners or losers in this event because everyone performed his personal best. A great amount of talent was displayed by all who participated in the event. Thanks go out to the S.C.A. and the RBMB for a successful night.

Wrestling in applesauce? Who could forget!

These pictures show how much fun you can have when you combine the SCAs from seven different schools with a wrestling ring filled with applesauce. May 19th was an interesting night with wrestlers coming to Stafford High School from all over the area, including James Monroe, Spotsy, King George, North Stafford, Stafford, Chancellor, and Courtland. Wrestlers from Courtland were Ebi Zahabi and Jamie Oakes on one team, Joe White and Sean Copley on another, and Hannah Brittain and Catherine Carter on our girls team. Ebi Zahabi and Jamie Oakes were the winning team from Courtland. Everyone involved had a really good time, and money was raised for the homeless shelter.

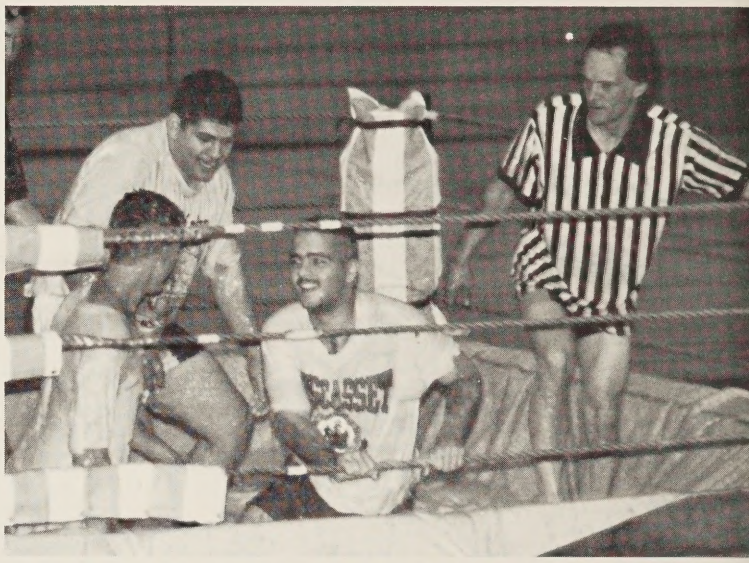
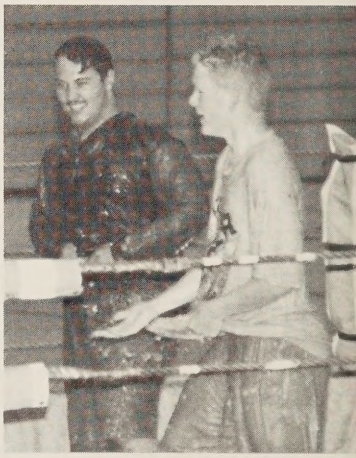
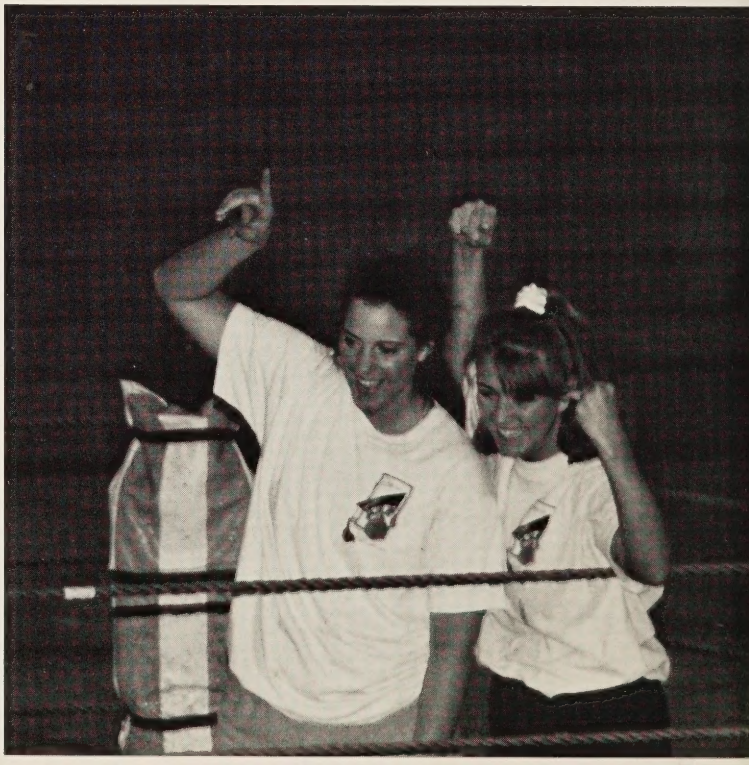
- Ms. Lanceley

"It was a lot of fun for a good cause." - Jen Armstrong







To Ensure That Memories of Prom Are Good Ones

PROM PROMISE

Every year Courtland students have the opportunity to promise an alcohol-drug free prom. The students sign a written agreement not to use alcohol or drugs the night of prom. In order to encourage the students to make that promise, the principals promised the student body certain things. As the number of students who signed increased, Luke Powell and Mr. Noakes switched clothes, Mr. Daniels wore the cougar mascot costume, and Mrs. Speight sang our Alma Mater. The top picture displays Ricky McAddams showing his school spirit by signing.

"Prom promise is a lot of work but a worthwhile cause, " commented Kathrina Lee.

The Time is Tonight

"Wonderful Tonight"-Prom 1993

Last year's Junior/ Senior Prom was held at the Mary Washington College Ballroom on Saturday May 15, 1993. The ballroom was decorated in teal, black, and white by the Junior Class. It takes many hours of planning and hard work to make prom special. There are themes to be chosen, picture backgrounds to be constructed, D.J.'s to be called, tables to be covered, and numerous decorations to be finished. After all the work is done, prom is a fun time to get dressed up, go to a nice restaurant, and dance. It will be a great memory for years to come and was truly "Wonderful Tonight."

Top Right: The juniors who helped decorate the ballroom and plan the 1993 prom, and their dates, pose for a picture in front of the fountain at Mary Washington College. Because of their hard work, prom was a success. Bottom Right: Willie Toppin and Tasha Hamlett's smiles show that the couple is happy just to be together as they dance. Bottom Left: Mr. Noakes and Mrs. Richards, the former Junior Class sponsor, share a laugh in the lobby of the ballroom. Last year was Mrs. Richards' final year as sponsor. She deserves a special thanks for all her efforts and many years of service as sponsor of the Junior Class.

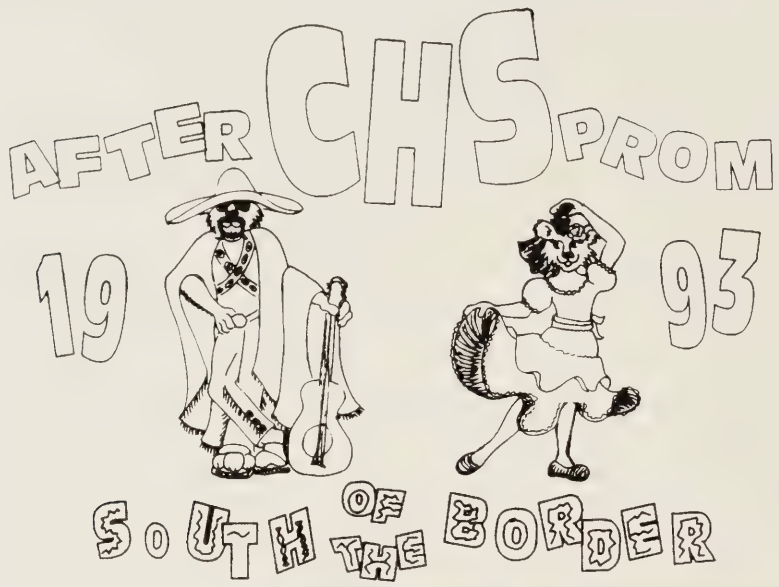
Time to Party:

Students Stay Drug and Alcohol-Free After Prom



The After-Prom Party was started by the parents of Courtland to provide a drug and alcohol-free environment for students after the prom. The students partied all night and won tons of prizes. 8. Danielle McBride — Miss America
   Escorted by Lauren Marcellin
9. Carla Pollard — Miss Fortune
   Escorted by Ginger Avery
10. Matthena Sieracki — Miss Proportioned
    Escorted by Talli Brown

The Drag Races were held on June 11, 1993, in the Courtland High School auditorium. The ten contestants participated in three events: sportswear modeling, the talent competition, and evening gown modeling. Then the contestants were asked questions. The finalists were Ebigail (Ebi) Zahabi, Craigetta (Craig) Doucette, Shana (Sean) Trantham, Ryangie (Ryan) Goodrich, Tammy (Tim) Iddings, and Carla (Carl) Pollard. There was a tie, and the two winners were Ebigail Zahabi and Craigetta Doucette. In order to participate, all contestants must have great security in their masculinity. Each contestants did a great job and gave the audience an experience that it will never forget.

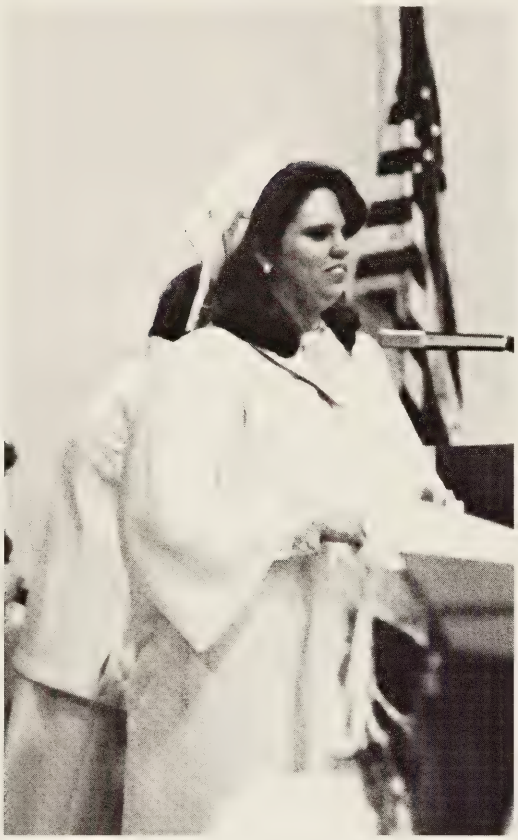
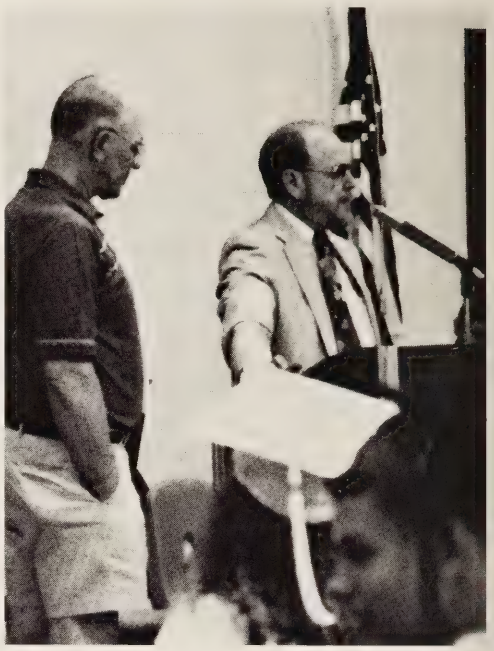
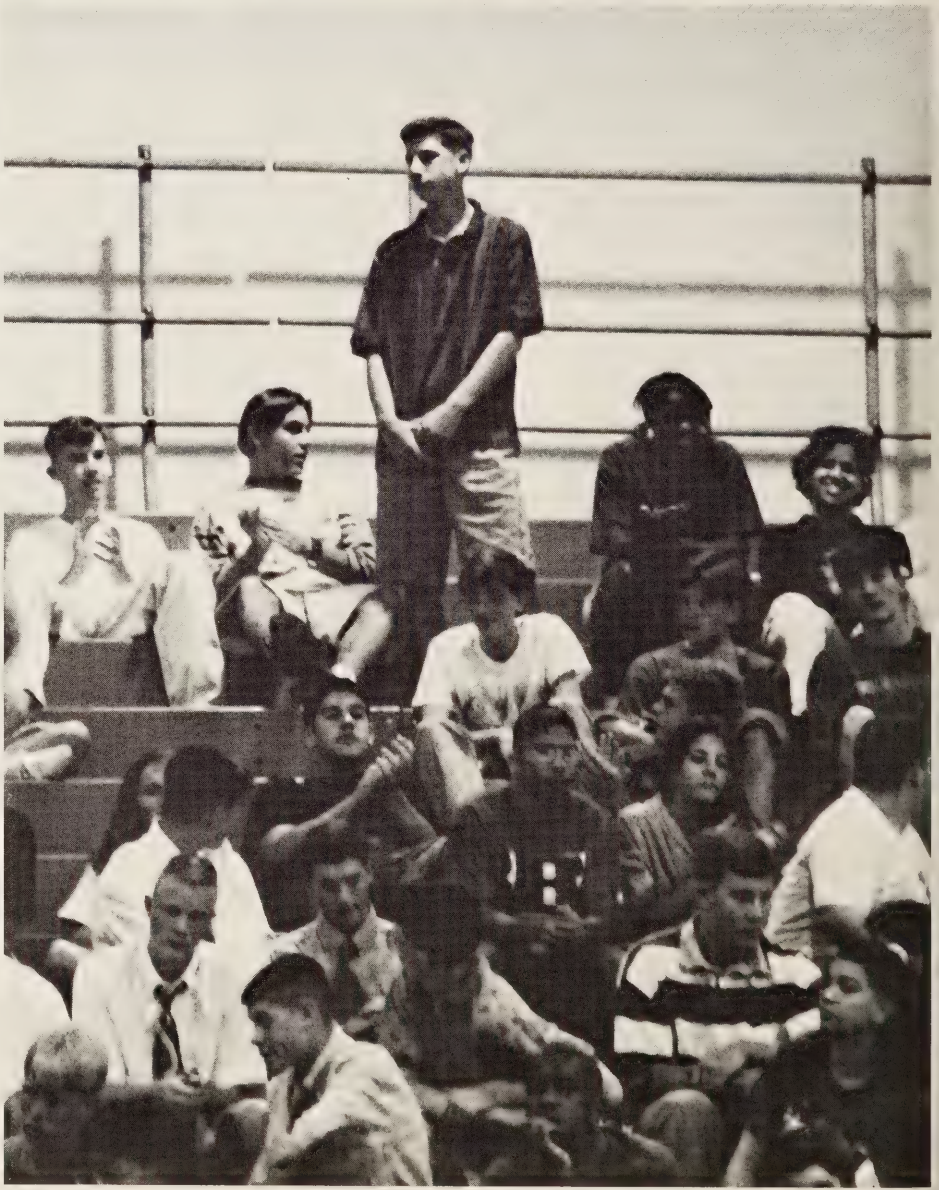
TIME FOR CONGRATULATIONS







Courtland High School held its annual Scholarship and Awards Assembly on Tuesday, May 25, 1993, in the gymnasium. Faculty, students, and parents gathered to see numerous students receive awards from clubs, local organizations, sororities, and other associations. Melissa Spears and Heather Lindert received five and four awards respectively. Hannah Brittain and Kerry Hudgins each received basketball scholarships and Shannon Atkinson and Timmy Marshall each received awards for track. Coach Ken Brown received a plaque from the faculty and students for his football record of 128-31. He has already attained numerous awards including Virginia Coach of the Year for 1991. All of these students, and others who received honors, deserve our congratulations.

Graduation was held on June 19, 1993. After the seniors filed onto the football field and everyone was seated Hannah Brittain gave her welcoming speech. She was followed by the guest speaker, the Honorable Judge J. Dean Lewis from the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. Following that speech, the opening and commencement addresses were given by Heather Lindert and Yolanda Kehn. Finally came the long awaited handing out of the diplomas. Then there was the traditional throwing of the caps to conclude the ceremony.

Spring Play '93: A Time For MadneSS

The Courtland High School Drama Department's spring play was titled A Time For Madness. It takes place in the home of the Billings. The oldest of the four Billings, Sandra, is away at college. She comes home from school with her fiance, Julian. Julian, played by Danny McBride, is a strange poet. Sandra's previous boyfriend discovers her engagement and gets upset. Meanwhile the poet, Julian, has promised to recite one of his poems for the Billings. The three younger kids have already found his poem and made fun of it because it is incredibly silly. When Julian recites his poem in front of Sandra, she finally realizes the mistake she has made.

Time to Relax

Envious Excursions

During the summer most people have to work but some people get to take vacations to far away places. This past summer Mrs. Richards took a group of art students to Europe for a vacation. Students from area high schools went on the trip which visited such famous cities as Paris, Florence, and Venice. The trip lasted two weeks with the students visiting famous landmarks like the Eiffel Tower and The Louvre. The students saw famous paintings like the Mona Lisa and the Birth of Venus. One of the best parts of this exciting trip was when they visited Switzerland and tried to climb up the Alps. This was a very educational and fun experience for all of the students who went.

Time for an Addition

This year was the grand opening of the Spotsylvania Vocational Center addition. The Vocational Center provides students with skills and training that could be used in the future, such as a business education, cosmetology, masonry, auto body, nursing, and drafting. With the addition now open, there is the capability for more students to get a vocational education.

From Friends To Politics:

Features

SIBLING RIVALRY

Above: Fraternal twins Ginger (left) and Jennifer Avery say being in school together is competitive but fun. Middle: Kristina Sublett, 16 and John Sublett, 15 like being in school together because they can keep an eye on each other. Below: Senior Megan Hopkins and her freshman sister, Jennifer have the same taste in sports. They show their school spirit by playing field hockey.

Top Left: Erica, left, and Tiffany Roberson say they aren't the best of friends but they get along most of the time. Middle Left: Because Justin and Cameron Lewis are twins they are pretty close and they look out for one another. Bottom Left: Lea Debosh (sophomore) and her younger brother Michael (freshman) say they don't come in contact with each other very often during a typical day of school. This is an example of how the large population effects the students here at Courtland. Bottom Right: Even though siblings Raven and Scott Stonebreaker are three years apart, they say they have a lot of the same friends and get along really well.

Do you have any brothers or sisters in the school? If so, then you can relate to the feelings of these students.

Heather Garrison, 17, said, "It's cool being in the same school. I look out for my little bro," talking about her freshman brother Justin. Ginger and Jennifer Avery, fraternal twins in 11th grade tell us that they share everything, even their car with the license plate TWINZYS. Ginger is 19 minutes older than Jennifer. They are best friends and Ginger says, "Since we don't look alike people think we are lying when we tell them we are twins." The most unusual sibling story in the school is Elizabeth and John Arrington. Liz is a senior and her 21 year old brother is a teacher here. Liz says, "It is weird being in the same school together because John is a teacher and I am a student." Another brother a sister here at Courtland are Chrissy and David Lucy. Chrissy, a junior, drives David, a freshman, to school everyday and David says that's the best thing about being in the same school.

If you think having one sibling in the school is bad, how about two? April and Amber Lambrose are fraternal twins in ninth grade and also have an older sister Angel who is a senior. April said, "Me and Amber are pretty good friends but our biggest problem is we always like the same boy."

Two brothers in the school are J.J. and Ryan Buckley. J.J. is a senior and his younger brother Ryan is a freshman. J.J. doesn't like his brother being in the same school as him because he says he can't do anything stupid anymore. Sara and Carrie Hansen are sisters who say that most of the time they are good friends. Sara wishes that she was the same age as Carrie so she could have the same friends.

Marsha Brown and Donna Townsend have a heart-warming story about best friends who became sisters. Marsha and Donna have been best friends since kindegarten. Their parents both split up so, they decided to set up Marsha's dad and Donna's mom. Their parents ended up getting married. Today Marsha and Donna are still best friends.

TIME TO Remember

FRIENDS

Ralph Waldo Emerson once said, "He who has a thousand friends has not a friend to spare." This quote shows the importance of each friend, and of friendship in general. Friends can be found throughout the school, in many different situations. Sports, classes, and clubs provide opportunities for students and teachers to get acquainted and eventually become friends. Friendships are a very important part of everyone's high school years.

Top Left: Friends and fellow team members Becky Sizemore (left) and Megan Romine talk and laugh while walking down the hall. Top Right: Eric Johnson and Steven Quattlebaum show their friendship by helping each other on the yearbook pages while the other members of the staff look on. Middle Right: Some of the football players watch on the sidelines during practice. Many close friendships are made through sports teams. Bottom Right: Friends definitely know how to laugh together. Some of the drama students take a moment to laugh and pose on the stage.

> "Friendship is the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person having neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words."
> -George Eliot

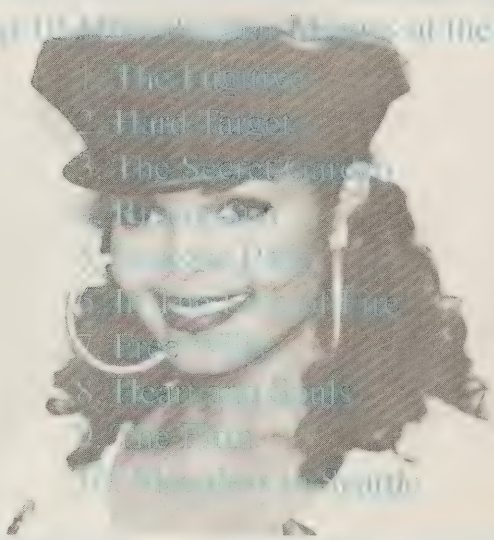
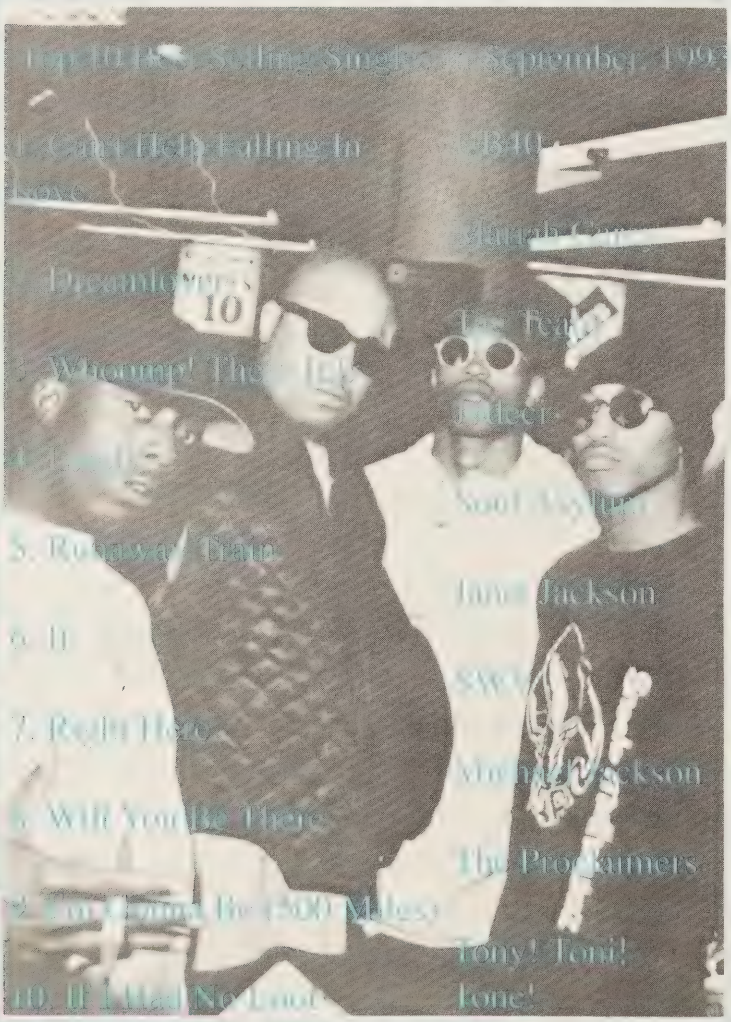
Time to hit the Charts





Time to be in Style

It's not just the upperclassmen who are in style. Even freshmen like Cullen Cassidy and Lindsey Wilson, to the right, are sporting popular plaid shirts. Other items in style are Converse tennis shoes, baggy clothes, and natural hairdos such as baby braids. Below, a group of young women show off their style. Heather Dancer sports her John Lennon glasses. Carrey Snell is chillin' in big baggy overalls, the famous plaid shirt, and a stocking cap. No one can miss Yvonne Mandeville's snazzy outfit or Mary Fleming's shoes. The picture next to those happening females is another group of in style individuals. Looking at this picture you can tell that plaid shirts are in. Alan Lamm, Cody Thompson, Christina Smith, and Jason Cunningham are holding up Mike Ochs.

Where' s Waldo has been revived !

Now though, the hot item to find is plaid shirts. Take a good look at the picture to the left and see how many plaid shirts you can find. One, two, three, etc. The cool thing about plaid shirts is that they are so comfortable. All you need to do is throw on a pair of jeans, button your plaid shirt, and you are off. Plaid shirts are seen everywhere nowadays, in the mall, on the streets of downtown Fredericksburg, and in the midst of our school pep rallies.

Top Left: In September the Bosnia parliament rejected an international peace plan for that devastated republic. The United Nations has sent a peacekeeping force to the former Yugoslavia to help keep peace among the three warring factions. Top Right: Russian President Boris Yeltsin dissolved parliament in an unprecedented move in late September. Yeltsin said he was dismissing the legislature to pull the country out of its political and economic crisis. Riots broke out several days later. Middle: The AIDS virus continues to spread. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimate there will be 40,000 to 80,000 new HIV infections in the United States this year. Bottom Left: Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and the P.L.O. chairman, Yasser Arafat, signed a treaty at the White House. The Mideast accord was the product of months of secret negotiations conducted mainly in Norway. Bottom Right: First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton chaired the White House task force that devised the health security plan. The plan would cost the federal government an extra $350 billion over five years.

Imagine this: You've practiced all summer so this year you can have a winning football team. The first game, against North Stafford arrives, and you can't wait to get out there and win one for your school. Everything is going fine until the third quarter. You go for a tackle, and you feel an excruciating pain in your left leg. The next thing you know your high school football career is over.

This was the case for Ryan Newell. He played three positions: linebacker, running back, kicker. His greatest achievement before his injury was three touchdowns in one game. Even though he broke the tibia in his left leg, he will be ready to go when soccer season arrives.

> "People wait on me hand and foot."

There are some advantages and disadvantages to this situation. He said, "People wait on me hand and foot." But he remarked "I can't go anywhere, and it is slow getting places." Hopefully we'll see Ryan this spring when the soccer team starts its 1994 season.

Jennifer Lee Gorham (Sophie/Refinnej): L&L to The Named; "It's never easy, letting go." Uh, Mr. Postman?

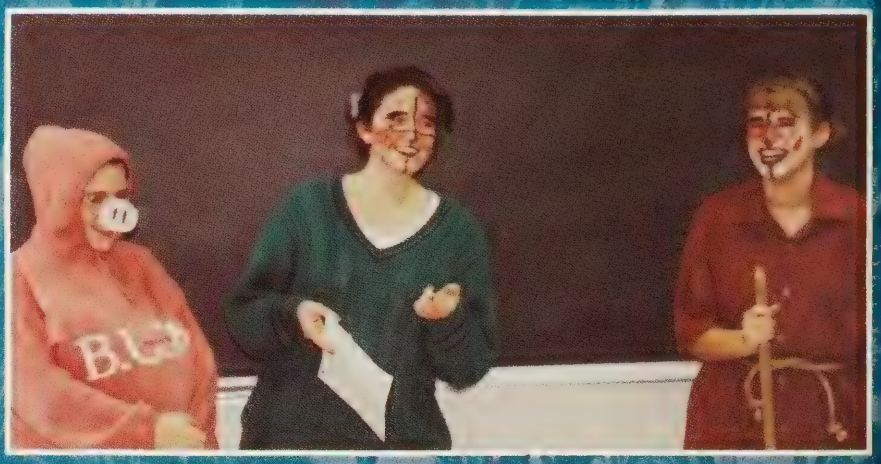
CLASS OF '94

As the end of our high school career approaches, all of us have to decide what we will do after graduating. We have many options including college, vocational occupations, or the military. Though applying to colleges and filling out job applications is not exciting, it is a step forward toward the future. Most importantly, decisions made now affect our lives forever. Right: Connie Kiker finds her cosmotology class very informative and amusing. Left: Andre McDowney wonders if he wants to "be all he can be in the Army."

Show & TELL



Mrs. Lanceley's Advanced English 12 students have displayed their creativity this year through projects about the literary works Lord of the Flies and Beowulf. In the Lord of the Flies assignment, groups had to analyze different parts of the story. Andrea Haymes, Heather Garrison, and Renee Falls decided to "get into character" by dressing as Piggy, Jack, and Ralph, respectively. They explained the Freudian philosophies of the id, superego, and ego personalities. Renee Falls remarked, "Dressing like Ralph made the assignment more enjoyable for me. I felt like a totally different person when I was speaking to the class." Later during the year, the classes had to do friezes for the scenes in Beowulf. A frieze is when students depict scenes by turning into a sculpture. Tina Weiss, Angie Lundholm, and Michele Sousa did their friezes on Beowulf in battle and Beowulf at the time of death. These projects help students show their creativity.

Time for Learning: Courtland Students Attend Governor's School

Four Courtland High School students had the privilege of being accepted to Governor's School this past summer at the University of Richmond. Vince Ventura, Katie Stanfield, JoanMarie Markley, and Sarah Jones attended the School of Humanities with about 400 other people. Every student had two classes a day: one class they chose and one class was assigned to them. For the entire month of July they experienced what college life is really like. Governor's School wasn't all work, though. Each night the students went to cultural events such as a Broadway show at the Carpenter Center. They also went to a Richmond Braves game and there were dances every Friday night. Because of the tremendous amount of talent they possessed, the students performed three separate talent shows. When there wasn't an organized event going on, there was pool, ping-pong, or a host of other activities. Most importantly they met many new friends, and learned many valuable things. Top Right: Sarah Jones and her roommate Tennille had a hard time saying good-bye on the last day. Middle Left: This is the cover of the magazine that the students at Governor's School created. Middle Right: Sarah Jones and her friends from Governor's School are enthralled by the beautiful scenery at the University of Richmond. Bottom Right: Vince Ventura spends his free time playing cards with some other students.

Time to Display Talent: Seniors Sarah Morrison and Pat Sullivan have what it takes.

How long have you been interested in art?
Sarah: all my life
Pat: I have been serious about art for the past three years. In kindergarten my teachers could see my talent. In sixth grade my mother bought me a book on drawing portraits.
Who is your favorite artist(s)?
Sarah: The Impressionists.
Pat: I try to learn from all different famous artists to develop my own style. I like Andrew Wyeth because of his emotions and watercolors.
What is your favorite work?
Sarah: Metamorphosis uses images of ballerinas and a butterfly from paintings of Edgar Degas and superimposes them on top of each other. This is one of the most abstract pictures I've done. It's very free and Van Goghish. It took a lot of work and thinking to figure out how the images should blend in and out of each other just right, but I think it turned out well.

Pat: Watercolor and experimenting with color.
What do you dislike about art?
Sarah: When art is tight.
Pat: The new stuff that is out just threw paint on and has no emotions.
Do you plan to make a career in art?
Sarah: No.
Pat: Yes, I've applied to six different colleges, but I am unsure about them.

SENIORS' WORDS OF WISDOM

"Take only what is given to you. Share only what you have. And never deny help if offered--even if you don't need it." -Ben Donde

"Always remember, as you slide down the banister of life, be careful not to get a splinter." -Lisa Snyder

"Don't worry about people knowing you; make yourself worth knowing. Be yourself!" -Angela Hatchel

"In a word, there are three things that last forever: faith, hope, and love; but the greatest of them all is love." -Heather Garrison

"There is always an alternative. High school is what you make of it. If you hate it, fine; but at least pass. Give it your best and the rest is a piece of cake. Just do your work and you will prevail." -Dolcinea Olson

"Free your mind." -Mitsah Henry

"Work hard for what you believe in and your success will be great. Times will get hard and people will try to pull you away, but it's your life, your choice, and only you can make something better of yourself." -Kendra Foster

"Floss regularly. And take lots of showers, 'cause then you'll smell good! And if you happen to see He-Man, just run!" -J.J. Buckley

"There are no secrets to success. It is the result of preparation, hard work, and learning from failure." -Susan Dickerson

"Tell smart women they're beautiful and beautiful women they're smart. Learn three clean jokes and don't eat cereal with a fork." - David Gonier

"If you find something that will make you happy, then go for it and don't let anybody stand in your way." -Kimberly Wyant

"If you fill your days and hours with the sadness, failures, and regrets of yesterday, you will never find the happiness of tomorrow." - Angie Nordan

"Get involved as much as you can. Don't wait 'til your last year to get involved and study, because it might be too late." -Carol Pifer

"Instead of setting huge goals, set small goals and work your way up to your main goal. This will help you get more done and feel more successful." -Renee Falls

Remembering the Most Spirited

Ninety Four

This year for the first time at Courtland, the Student Cooperative Association recognized the most spirited senior girl and guy. Teachers nominated the students they felt were the most spirited. The students submitted a list of the activities they have participated in during high school. Next, the seniors voted on the nominees to narrow it down to five guys and five girls. To make the final decision, the student body voted for whom they thought was most spirited. The winners were presented at the basketball game on Saturday, February 19, 1994. Kendra Foster was named Miss Cougar and Tim Iddings was elected Mr. Cougar.

"Mysterious Malady Hits Legion Convention"

A Time To Be Born

The year 1976 was a year of great things. Most of the graduates of 1994 were Bicentennial babies as 1976 marked the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Legionnaires Disease became a new enemy when 29 people died at an American Legion Convention. In sports the Pittsburgh Steelers won the Super Bowl while the Cincinnati Reds took the World Series. Politically, Jimmy Carter began his four-year term as president.

Time To Get Down To Business

This year the business department is putting a lot of emphasis on computers. The department has grown and is continually meeting the needs of the students, academically and vocationally. They include in their curriculum what will be needed in the business community for present and future. Left: On her way to her next class, Nancy Chiafulio steers her cart through the crowded halls of Courtland. Right: Lyn Mills takes some time out of her busy schedule to proofread papers.

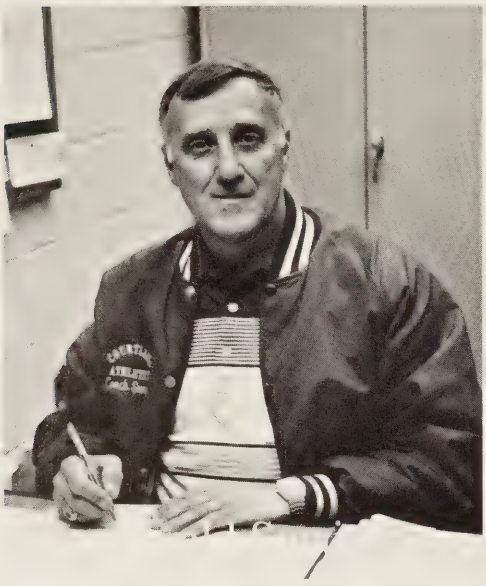
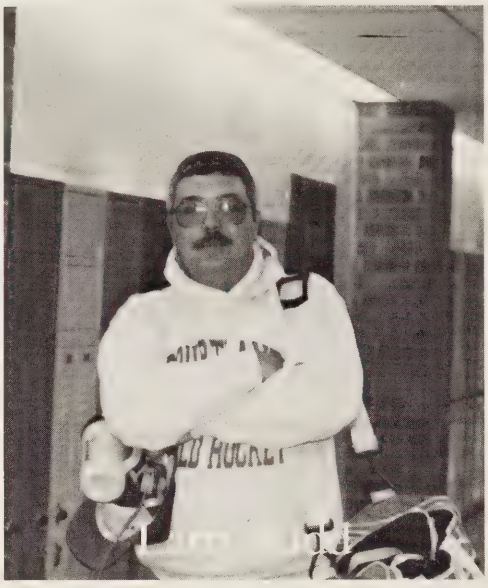
Corey Koch (Music Teacher)

In order to graduate from high school, students must take one credit of either a fine art or a practical art. Art classes are a popular choice which some students decide to take. Mr. Koch also offers a variety of coures from chorus classes to percussion classes. Courtland has many talented students and teachers who work in fine arts and practical arts.

Physical Education





Physical fitness is sweeping the nation. Everyday television commercials promote health clinics and "getting fit." Physical education helps the young generation begin to "shape up." Gym is a worthwhile class because it helps your body physically. These six gym teachers spend their time training students to be more healthy. Left: Mrs. Frame answers a student's question after a long day at the track.

Time To Compete: Teachers face students in a different setting-a basketball court.

Sidelines

Each year the teachers go head-to-head against the students in a basketball game. The willing female teachers play the girls basketball team. The male teachers play the guys who volunteer to compete against them. This year the girls team won, and the male teachers beat the guys. Top Left: John Zitz, Shannon Mahone, and Coach Lowman reach for the rebound. Top Right: Meg MacDonald shoots to score a point for the student team. Bottom Left: C.J. Wormley attempts to pass the ball while Mr. Pins guards him. Bottom Right: Joe Cecil, Shannon Mahone, and C.J. Wormley watch as Joe Hoffman tries to score.

TIME TO Remember

Special Events

One Act Play: A Time for Poetry

The Courtland Thespians present their award winning one act play. The play was about two rival gangs, the Bards, (middle right), and the Grunts (middle left). The Bards favored the finer aspects of life, such as music and poetry, while the Grunts prized braun and physical prowess. Top Right: Conflicts intensify when the leaders, Danny McBride and J.J. Buckley, fall in love with the same girl, Kristin Oliveri. Do We Have Spirit?

Well Now Is The Time To Show It!

From October 11, 1993, to October 15, 1993, the S.C.A. sponsored a Spirit Week. Throughout the week spirit ribbons were sold for 50 cents. Monday was Class Color Day. Each class had a certain color to wear. Tuesday was Twin Day. Students got together and dressed alike. Joy Lamb and Carrie Hansen were the winners. Wednesday after school a bonfire was held. The students brought construction paper circles and "burned the Spots" (referring to the upcoming game against Spotsylvania). Thursday during the lunch shifts, the students were able to bash a car for ten cents a swing. Friday was Courtland's Homecoming game. We supported our school by wearing our school colors and seniors wore their Senior Hats. That afternoon a pep rally was held and the students and faculty were able to witness a new school tradition, Homecoming Banners rather than floats. The grand prize went to the Art Department.

Homecoming Court

A lot of planning and expectation center around Homecoming. Couples have to get ready for their dates and the SCA has to plan the dance. The 1993 Homecoming dance was held on Saturday, October 16. The commons area was beautifully decorated with balloons and gossamer in iridescent, magenta, rose. All the couples went to the dance smiling and looking their best. The entire school awaited the announcement of the king and queen, Cortez Allen and Susan Sullivan. At the dance, the king and queen as well as the court members were presented. Homecoming is an honored tradition which serves to welcome back alumni and boost school spirit. The evening is also a special memory for all students involved. Even though the planning and expectation are over, the event will never be forgotten.

Above: King and Queen, Cortez Allen and Susan Sullivan, are presented to the crowd at the Homecoming dance. They anxiously awaited the moment of their crowning.

Time to Get Psyched

This year Courtland had two pep rallies, one for the fall sports teams and one for the winter teams. In the fall pep rally, the football team held a mock, Blue vs. White game. The cheerleaders did a small performance, and the other fall sports teams were recognized by lining up on the track. During the winter sports pep rally there was a player picked from the basketball team, the wrestling team, and the indoor track team from each grade. Mr. Noakes, Mrs. Speight, and Mr. Daniels also formed a team of principals. Each grade made up a team, and they had a relay race. The seniors ended up winning, of course.

Time For Honors

Tis year, as with every other year, Courtland had an assembly to honor tlse students who received an academic letter by obtaining a 3.5 GPA or bter. There was a guest speaker, a Courtland graduate, who spoke about o aing your goals and following your dreams. Another honorable ceremony at Courtland this year was The National Honor Society Induc-fn. Juniors and seniors were chosen because of their leadership, scholar-s p, service and character. The ceremony was held in the evening on Juary 12. The officers, President Jennifer Yates, Vice-President Renee Flls, Secretary Susan Sullivan, Treasurer Renee Kuzmovich, and Fporter/Historian Dawn Holian, inducted all new members by lighting e:h of their candles.

Remembering African-American Heritage

February was Black History Month, and Courtland celebrated it in many ways. The Multi-Cultural Club, newly formed this year, sponsored many of the activities of the month. In the anouncements each week, there were black history trivia questions. There was a bulletin board which featured the faces of many famous African-Americans and their contributions to society. The Science Department made a bulletin board using famous black scientists. Also, the showcase was filled with books, magazines, and photographs, about African-Americans. The Multi-Cultural Club held a fashion show where African fashions were displayed. And, the whole school enjoyed an assembly done by actors from Theatre Company in Richmond, Virginia. A singer who travels with the group sang "Imagine" by John Lennon and "Hero" by Mariah Carey. The leader of the group, Toney Cosby, reinacted the life of Martin Luther King, Jr. All these events raised the student body's awareness of black history.

The 1993 varsity soccer team had one of its best seasons ever. They finished with a record of 11 wins, 5 losses, and 2 ties (both of which were won in shootouts). In the third annual Chancellor Invitational tournament, they beat two tough teams, Western Albemarle and Tabb, in close games that they won in a shootout. They then advanced to the finals of the Chancellor Invitational and played Chancellor. They lost a close game, 1-0, to finish second. In the race for first place in the district they finished second, losing only to Chancellor, 1-0, but still advanced to the Regional tournament. In the regional tournament the team defeated Western Albemarle, 2-0, to advance to the semi-finals. They then played Park View, the team that eliminated them last year, and won 2-0. In the Regional finals they played Chancellor and lost a close overtime game in a shoot-out. Since they advanced to the Regional finals, they got a berth in state tournament. In the state quarter-finals they played York and lost a close game 1-0. This was the end to a great season.

Cross-country team has a winning season

This year's girls and boys cross-country teams had excellent seasons. The girls' team advanced to the regional meet at Handley High School by placing 2nd in the district meet, only two points behind Chancellor. Clara Moulton, 5th, Jennifer Smith, 7th, and Laura McKenna, 13th, all placed in the district meet. The boys started their season with a bang by placing second in their first big meet, the Chancellor Invitational. The team then had their sights set on the district title which they won by beating Chancellor with a score of 59 to 63. Brian Conner, Travis Early, and Richard Hall placed 2nd, 4th, and 5th respectively. The entire team then advanced to the regional meet. There, Brian Conner placed 9th and went on to place 39th at the state meet in Blacksburg. Congratulations to both teams.

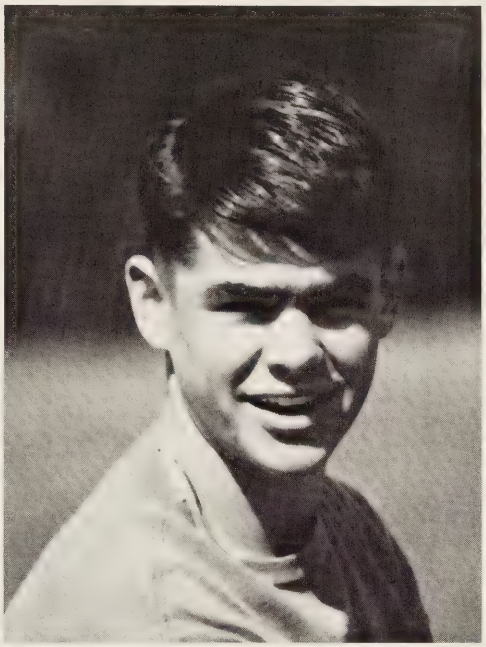
TIME FOR A HOLE IN ONE



The 1993 Courtland Golf team claimed the Battlefield District title after a fine season this year. In post-season play, Jason Self returned to the state tournament where he improved upon last year's finish by placing third. Other top performers on this year's team include Ben Debrul and Charlie Driest. Charlie Driest remarked, "The team really worked well together. Everyone seemed to complement each other's abilities." The 1994 team hopes to continue the success of past years by three-peating as District champs.

J.V. FIELD HOCKEY

This year the J.V. team had an undefeated seson. The team, which mostly consisted of freshmen, was a very young team. Some key players on the team were Ann Westover, Megan Romine, Becca Liptrap, Carly Lease, Jennifer Hopkins, and Lea Debosh. With so many talented freshmen on the team, J.V. field hockey can expect another winning season next year.

has the "drive" to score

Courtland's hockey team had one of its best seasons ever this year. The girls finished third in the Battlefield District and made it to the first ever District Tournament. They lost against JM in the semi-final game of the tournament; the game was a tie, but JM won by a penalty shot for the tie breaker. Another accomplishment for the team was that some players were selected for the All District team. Sarah Morrison was selected for first team offense, Renee Kuzmovich for first team defense, and Melissa Willard received an honorable mention. Although the team will be losing a lot of seniors this year, it will have a lot of sophomores moving up; so the team hopes to have as good a season next year.

Varsity Girls Basketball

The 1993 Varsity Girls Basketball Team finished fourth in the Battlefield District. The girls won their first playoff game against Orange but lost the second game to Chancellor. Four of the team members were honored by being on the All-District team. Tene Wilson was named to the first team; Kim Burruss, Carrie Hansen, and Becky Dameron received honorable mention. The team ended with an overall record of 12-8.

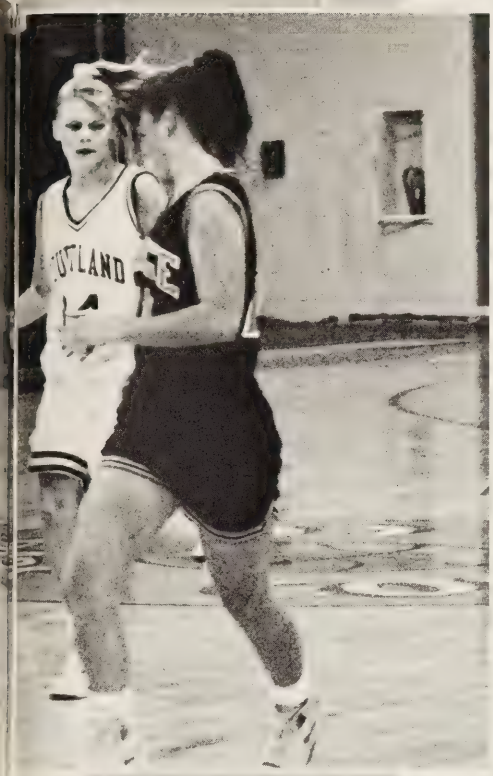
Just THE FACTS

Junior Varsity Basketball



The Junior Varsity Girls Basketball Team had a very good season. They ended the season with a record of 15 and 4. Three of their losses came to Louisa while the other one came in their opening game against Spotsylvania. The team finished this year second in the district. Tracy Early, point guard, was named MVP. Two other exceptional players were Sarah Seale (forward) and Katie Huber (forward and center). Congratulations for a successful year on the court.

Varsity Basketball

Time to Hoop it Up

The Courtland High School Varsity Basketball team had a memorable season. Their final record was 9-8. The team played well at home but had some trouble playing away. The team was made up of a lot of skilled players. The outstanding players this year were Chuck Markley and Joey Harrison.

A Time to Flip Gymnast

The Courtland High School gymnastics team had a successful season this year. The team finished third in the district. Sophomore Asheley Kaila led the team this year on bars. At the district meet she placed third on bars, and sixth on vault. At the regional meet she tied for sixth on vault. Freshmen Natasha Gibbs was another outstanding gymnast. She led the team on the floor and was a strong performer on vault. Natasha placed second on vault, fourth on all-around, and fifth on floor at districts. She also tied for sixth on the vault at regionals. Sophomore Stephanie Mager had a strong finish at the district meet. She placed first on vault, second on beam, sixth on floor, and third all-around. At the regional meet she placed third on beam.

Time to Make Music: Courtland's Choruses Shine Bright

Courtland's choruses rocked the house this year with their music. The chorus almost doubled in size form thirty members last year to fifty-six members this year. The advanced chorus students had quite a bit of talent this year. The Christmas concert highlighted the season with the chorus' "Hallelujah Chorus" and the advanced chorus' "Gesu Bambino." The advanced chorus members shared their talent with the public by participating in the carol sing on Caroline Street and by singing along side the Carriage Hill float in the Fredericksburg parade. Eight choral students tried our for All-District chorus. They performed in the All-District concert at Mills-Godwin High School in Richmond, VA, on Saturday, Februatry 19, 1994. They auditioned for All-State Chorus, and Renee Falls went on to States. All in all, this was a year of change for the choruses of Courtland. The changes were well worth it.

JIMMY

We know all your hopes and dreams will come true.
We Love You.

YOU GO BOY !!!!!!
Love, Larry, Gail, Wendy, and Kacie

Good Luck and Success in the Future Years.

Love, Grandpa and Grandma

We are so proud of you!!
Through the years we have seen you grow from a little boy playing in the yard to a fine young man Cheering on the court and we know that all your hopes and dreams will come true.
GO JIMMY, GO JIMMY !!!!!

Love, Mom and Denise

We know you will do "BIG" in everything you strive for. We are very proud of you.

Justin & Anita

Congratulations on your Super Senior Year. You managed to exceed all expectations. The future is yours, set your goals high and climb that ladder one rung at a time.

Love, Dad and Terry

TOMMY

You are the best "BIG" little brother ever. We Love you very much and are proud of you.

Love, Anita and Justin

We are proud of your accomplishments and we love you very much, SON. We knew you could do it!!!!

Love, Mom and Your Pop

We will always remember you running across the football field making those first downs, kicking that football down field and Best of all making the 2 point conversions. We are really proud of you.
YEAH TOMMY !!!!!

Best of Luck, Kathy, Jimmy and Denise

Congratulations and I'm proud of you.
Love, Mammaw

As you travel down Life's Road - Don't forget your "MICKEY'S" !!!!
We are very proud of you.
Love,
